

SEPTEMBER SUGGESTIONS!

IN making your Fall and Winter selections place great stress on the Quality. Get satisfactory goods, then watch the prices. If the quality isn't back of them the prices are usually high. Every price we make is of the very best material—making economical buying for you.

Right Quality Dress Goods.

When you make your selections at our store you get the benefit of our early purchases, which enables us to name our prices that cannot be duplicated. We bought early—before the tariff changed. That means unusually low prices for sections that are superb in wool goods, in wash goods, in staples, in fancies, in checks, in mixtures, in the newest Fall of '97 selections. Special values in new weaves, full 50 inches wide, elegantly finished material—colorings the newest—superb values at 25 cents, 35 cents, 50 cents and up to $1.50.

September Values.

Items here and there, some for this time and some for that, just a suggestion of the reasonable prices that are found in every part of our stock. Kid gloves, splendidly wearing, pair $1.00; all linen checked towel, 12 inch wide, rich, full 18 inches wide; ladies' silk Windsor ties, autumn shades, each 25 cents; one dozen dinner napkins, rich and pure linen, 35 cents; hemmed luncheon towels, pair 20 cents; September values in muslins, cottons and sheetings are especially interesting. Bought early, sold right. Our Store will prove a friend to you for prices, and the quality is always the best.

If it's anything you buy—any want for the home—and you wish it at the right price and yet combined with quality, come to our Store!

Clothing Beauty.

There's beauty in clothing that is right in fit, finish and style. It's the harmonious blending of all these points that make your suit a comfort and a joy. It's the perfection in the make we sell—to your measure—that enables us to hold our patrons season after season—the Edward Rose & Co. make.

BOUND TO THE PLUTOCRATS.

Republican Legislature is all in the hands of the plutocrats. Senator Hanna was not in public life when he wrote to Attorney General Watson in 1890 the "open" man in public office owes the public a duty.

We do not say that if this false and disloyal attitude had been published at the time he would never have been in public life. His public office destroyed all chances of a public career for the author. The public office who address to this doctrine is a traitor. The interests to which this doctrine is applicable are the plutocrats. When Attorney General Watson was told that he could not antagonize the plutocrats of his own party, because it was nearly as powerful as the United States, he was told truth. Frequently it has been said that the plutocrats are the strongest. The plutocrats have just proved themselves stronger in the present administration than the plutocrats. They controlled Congress for their own purposes and destroyed a tariff law which deprived the people their hands to be plucked. The Standard Oil trust is strong enough, it is said, with the administration to keep Mr. Watson, who refused to be drawn or bribed into its service while in public office, from promised honors.

It is not necessary that this attitude be published to show where the political fealty of Senator Hanna was pledged. The Ohio senator has clearly illustrated his doctrine in his public conduct. He bound his party to the plutocrats and he has demonstrated the power of his power to the plutocrats. He has demonstrated the power of his power to the plutocrats. He has demonstrated the power of his power to the plutocrats.

But the publication of the political motto of the plutocratic leader now in command of the plutocratic party is a sacred trust. It shows the people the kind of politics and the kind of politician who dominates. It exposes the fatal error to be stamped out in order to save this government for the people and to restore it to the honest and safe path to which it was pledged by the fathers. It is a duty to the people. It is a duty to the people. It is a duty to the people.

Best I Have Ever Known.

Brownsville, Tex.,
Tonia for years, and pronounced it the best I ever had. I have ever known. During the past two years I had nearly twenty more. It comes from the fact that it is a universal cure for anything I have had.
